What is the Foreign Language Library?

The Foreign Language Library offers books and other media in Albanian, English, Finnish, French, Italian, Croatian, Portuguese, Russian, Serbian, Spanish and Turkish.

Learning assistance, language courses, bilingual works and texts in simplified German promote the integration of people with other mother tongues. Picture dictionaries, teaching materials and works on civilisation and culture support classes in language and culture, and provide material for teaching international classes.

The Foreign Language Library addresses itself primarily to children and young people who want to read foreign texts, as well as to their parents and instructors.

The Foreign Language Library is operated by the St. Galler Freihandbibliothek and is a joint project of the St. Galler Freihandbibliothek and Libra Forum.
